

Sahitya Akademi New Delhi organises Nari Chetna Programme

Top News Report

JAMMU, Jul 7: Nari Chetna program was organized in the web line literature series started by Sahitya Akademi New Delhi in which famous women story writers and poets of Dogri language gave their presentation. The programme was coordinated by Dr. N. Suresh Babu, Dy-Secretary, Sahitya Akademi.

The programme started with the story part of the well-known child story writer Sudesh Raj, who was awarded the Sahitya Akademi Award in Dogri language.

After which Nirmal Vikram, a famous story writer of Dogri language also mesmerized the audience with her story. Pramila Manhas, Chanchal Sharma, Neelam Verma and Saroj Bala also recited their poetry among the women poets who recited poetry in this programme.

The programme ended with the speech of Sahitya Akademi's Dy secretary and convener Dr. N. Suresh Babu.

Dr. Suresh Babu, while highlighting the organization of this programme said that during the Corona call on behalf of Sahitya Akademi New Delhi, various programmes are being organized in different languages so that the writers associated with different languages can be found under the web line series.

The right platform is provided and the enthusiasm of his writing remains.

He expressed his gratitude to all the litterateurs participating in the programme and the convener of Dogri Paramarsh Mandal, Darshan Darshi and Paramarsh Mandal, with whose cooperation such programmes are being organized.

Sahitya Akademi New Delhi organises Nari Chetna programme

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Nari Chetna programme was organized in the web line literature series started by Sahitya Akademi New Delhi in which famous women story writers and poets of Dogri language gave their presentation. The programme was coordinated by Dr. N. Suresh Babu, Dy-Secretary, Sahitya Akademi.

The programme started with the story part of the well-known child story writer Sudesh Raj, who was awarded the Sahitya Akademi Award in Dogri language.

After which Nirmal Vikram, a famous story writer of Dogri language also mesmerized the audience with her story. Pramila Manhas, Chanchal Sharma, Neelam Verma and Saroj Bala also recited their poetry among the women poets who recited poetry in this programme.

The programme ended with the speech of Sahitya Akademi's Dy secretary and convener Dr. N. Suresh Babu. Dr. Suresh Babu, while highlighting the organization of this programme said that during the Corona call on behalf of Sahitya Akademi New Delhi, various programmes are being organized in different languages so that the writers associated with different languages can be found under the web line series. The right platform is provided and the enthusiasm of his writing remains.

He expressed his gratitude to all the litterateurs participating in the programme and the convener of Dogri Paramarsh Mandal, Darshan Darshi and Paramarsh Mandal, with whose cooperation such programmes are being organized.

Sahitya Akademi New Delhi organises Nari Chetna Programme

A view of online programme.

EARLY TIMES REPORT

JAMMU, July 7: Nari Chetna program was organized in the web line literature series started by Sahitya Akademi New Delhi in which famous women story writers and poets of Dogri language gave their presentation.

The programme was coordinated by Dr. N. Suresh Babu, Dy-Secretary, Sahitya Akademi.

The programme started with the story part of the well-known child story writer Sudesh Raj, who was awarded the Sahitya Akademi Award in Dogri language. After which Nirmal Vikram, a famous story writer of Dogri language also mesmerized the audience with her story.

Pramila Manhas, Chanchal

Sharma, Neelam Verma and Saroj Bala ji also recited their poetry among the women poets who recited poetry in this programme.

The programme ended with the speech of Sahitya Akademi's Dy secretary and convener Dr. N. Suresh Babu. Dr. Suresh Babu, while highlighting the organization of this programme said that during the Karona call on behalf of Sahitya Akademi New Delhi, various programmes are being organized in different languages so that the writers associated with different languages can be found under the web line series. The right platform is provided and the enthusiasm of his writing remains.

Sahitya Akademi conducts 'Nari Chetna' programme

TNN BUREAU

JAMMU: Sahitya Akademi New Delhi in its web line literature series conducted "Nari Chetna" programme in which famous women story writers and poets of Dogri language gave their presentation. The programme was coordinated by Dr N Suresh Babu, Deputy Secretary, Sahitya Akademi. The programme started with the story part of the well-known child story writer Sudesh Raj, who was awarded the Sahitya Akademi Award in Dogri language. After which Nirmal Vikram, a famous story writer of Dogri language mesmerized the audience with her story. Pramila Manhas, Chanchal Sharma, Neelam Verma and Saroj Bala also recited their poetry during the event. Dr N Suresh Babu in his address said that during the Covid-19 lockdown, Sahitya Akademi organised various programmes in different languages so that the writers associated with different languages can be highlighted in web line series. He expressed his gratitude to all the litterateurs participating in the programme and the convener of Dogri Paramarsh Mandal, Darshan Darshi and Paramarsh Mandal, with whose cooperation such programmes are being organized.

Sahitya Akademi New Delhi organizes "Nari Chetna Programme"

Jammu: Nari Chetna program was organized in the web line literature series started by Sahitya Akademi New Delhi in which famous women story writers and poets of Dogri language gave their presentation. The programme was coordinated by Dr. N. Suresh Babu, Dy-Secretary, Sahitya Akademi.

The programme started with the story part of the well-known child story writer Mrs. Sudesh Raj, who was awarded the Sahitya Akademi Award in Dogri language. After which Smt. Nirmal Vikram ji, a famous story writer of Dogri language also mesmerized the audience with her story. Pramila Manhas, Chanchal Sharma, Neelam Verma and Saroj Bala ji also recited their poetry among the women poets who recited poetry in this programme. The programme ended with the speech of Sahitya Akademi's Dy secretary and convener Dr. N. Suresh Babu. Dr. Suresh Babu, while highlighting the organization of this programme said that during the Karona call on behalf of Sahitya Akademi New Delhi, various programmes are being organized in different languages so that the writers associated with different languages can be found under the web line series.

The right platform is provided and the enthusiasm of his writing remains.

Sahitya Akademi organizes 'Nari Chetna' Programme

GJ REPORT

JAMMU, JUL 7: Nari Chetna programme was organized in the web line literature series started by Sahitya Akademi New Delhi in which famous women story writers and poets of Dogri language gave their presentation.

The programme was coordinated by Dr. N. Suresh Babu, Dy-Secretary, Sahitya Akademi.

The programme started with the story part of the well-known child story writer Sudesh Raj, who was awarded the Sahitya Akademi Award in Dogri language. After which Nirmal Vikram, a famous story writer of Dogri language also mesmerized the audience with her story.

Pramila Manhas, Chanchal Sharma, Neelan Venna and Saroj Bala also recited their poetry among the women poets who recited poetry in this programme.

The programme ended with the speech of Sahitya Akademi's Dy Secretary and convener Dr. N. Suresh Babu. Dr. Suresh Babu while highlighting the organization of this programme said that during the Coronavirus pandemic on behalf of Sahitya Akademi New Delhi, various programmes were organized in different languages, so that the writers associated with different languages can be found under the web line series.

He expressed his gratitude to all the litterateurs participating in the programme and the convener of Dogri Paramarsh Mandal, Darshan Darshi and Paramarsh Mandal, with whose cooperation such programmes are being organized.

Sahitya Akademi New Delhi organises Nari Chetna programme

JAMMU BULLETIN NEWS

JAMMU, JUL 7:

Nari Chetna program was organized in the web line literature series started by Sahitya Akademi New Delhi in which famous women story writers and poets of Dogri language gave their presentation. The programme was coordinated by Dr. N. Suresh Babu, Dy-Secretary, Sahitya Akademi. The programme started with the story part of the well-known child story writer Mrs. Sudesh Raj, who was awarded the Sahitya Akademi Award in Dogri language. After which Smt. Nirmal Vikram ji, a famous story writer of Dogri language also mesmerized the audience with her story. Pramila Manhas, Chanchal Sharma, Neelam Verma and Saroj Bala ji also recited their poetry among the women poets who recited poetry in this programme. The programme ended with the speech of Sahitya Akademi's Dy secretary and convener Dr. N. Suresh Babu. Dr. Suresh Babu, while highlighting the organization of this programme said that during the Karona call on behalf of Sahitya Akademi New Delhi, various programmes are being organized in different languages so that the writers associated with different languages can be found under the web line series. The right platform is provided and the enthusiasm of his writing remains. He expressed his gratitude to all the litterateurs participating in the programme and the convener of Dogri Paramarsh Mandal, Shri Darshan Darshi and Paramarsh Mandal, with whose cooperation such programmes are being organized.

Sahitya Akademi New Delhi organises Nari Chetna Programme

Shadow Correspondent
JAMMU, JULY, 07

Nari Chetna program was organized in the web line literature series started by Sahitya Akademi New Delhi in which famous women story writers and poets of Dogri language gave their presentation. The programme was coordinated by Dr. N. Suresh Babu, Dy-Secretary, Sahitya Akademi.

The programme started with the story part of the well-known child story writer Mrs. Sudesh Raj, who was awarded the Sahitya Akademi Award in Dogri language. After which Smt. Nirmal Vikram ji, a famous story writer of Dogri language also mesmerized the audience with her story. Pramila Manhas, Chanchal Sharma, Neelam Verma and Saroj Bala ji also recited their poetry among the women poets who recited poetry in this programme.

The programme ended with the speech of Sahitya Akademi's Dy secretary and convener Dr. N. Suresh Babu. Dr. Suresh Babu, while highlighting the organization of this programme said that during the Karona call on behalf of Sahitya Akademi New Delhi, various programmes are being organized in different languages so that the writers associated with different languages can be found under the web line series. The right platform is provided and the enthusiasm of his writing remains.

Sahitya Akademi New Delhi organizes "Nari Chetna Programme"

Refugee Message Bureau

Jammu, July 07:

NARI CHETNA program was organized in the web line literature series started by Sahitya Akademi New Delhi in which famous women story writers and poets of Dogri language gave their presentation. The programme was coordinated by Dr. N. Suresh Babu, Dy. Secretary, Sahitya Akademi.

The programme started with the story part of the well-known child story writer Mrs. Sudeesh Raj, who was awarded the Sahitya Akademi Award in Dogri language. After which Smt. Nirmal Vikram

Ji, a famous story writer of Dogri language also mesmerized the audience with her story. Pramila Manhas, Chanchal Sharma, Neelam Verma and Saroj Bala Ji also recited their poetry among the women poets who recited poetry in this programme. The programme ended with the speech of Sahitya Akademi's Dy. secretary and convener Dr. N. Suresh Babu. Dr. Suresh Babu, while highlighting the organization of this programme said that during the Corona call on behalf of Sahitya Akademi New Delhi, various programmes are being organized in different languages so that the writers associated with different languages can be found under the web line series. The right platform is provided and the enthusiasm of his writing remains. He expressed his gratitude to all the literateurs participating in the programme and the convener of Dogri Paramarsh Mandal, Smt Darshan Darshi and Paramarsh Mandal, with whose cooperation such programmes are being organized.