

Sahitya Akademi showcases the journeys of Dogri poets

NL CORRESPONDENT
JAMMU TAWI, JUNE 29

Sahitya Akademi New Delhi under its webline literature series 'Literary Forum' organized a programme here today in which famous literary poets, story writers and critics of Dogri language gave their highly captivating presentations. The program was coordinated by Dr. N Suresh Babu, Deputy Secretary, Sahitya Akademi. The programme was started with the literary journey of Shri Deshbandhu Dogra Nutan renowned novelist who was awarded the Sahitya

Akademi Award in Dogri language followed by the experiences of literary journey of Sahitya Akademi Awardee Shri Om Vidyarthi ji who is a famous poet of Dogri language and famous litterateur. The programme was further showed the poetry recitation by the famous poet of Dogri language Abdul Qadir Kundria with the titles 'Makheer' 'Macchar' 'Irk' and 'Pichelageya Baar Corona' in which he captivated the mind of the audience, while Professor Archana Kesar renowned critic, linguist and story writer of Dogri language, recited the story.

The programme was ended with the speech of Sahitya Akademi's Deputy Secretary and convener of this programme Dr. Suresh Babu who threw light on the initiatives taken by the Akademi to promote dogri language through various methods. He said that during grave crisis of corona, various types of programs are being organized by Sahitya Akademi New Delhi in different languages, so that writers associated with different languages can be showcased under web line series.

Sahitya Akademi organises Sahitya Manch programme

Top News Report

JAMMU, Jun 29: Sahitya Akademi New Delhi under its webline literature series 'Literary Forum' programme organized here today in which famous literary poets, story writers and critics of Dogri language gave their highly captivating presentations.

The programme was coordinated by Dr. N Suresh Babu, Deputy Secretary, Sahitya Akademi. The programme was started with the literary journey of Deshbandhu Dogra Nutan, a well-known novelist, critic and senior litterateur, who was awarded the Sahitya Akademi Award in Dogri language followed by the experiences of literary journey of Sahitya Akademi Awardee Om Vidyarthi who is a famous poet of Dogri language and famous litterateur.

The programme was further showed the poetry recitation by the famous poet of Dogri language Abdul Qadir Kundria with the titles 'Makheer' 'Macchar' 'Irkh' and Picche lageya Baar Corona' in which he captivated the mind of the audience, while Professor Archana Kesar, a well-known critic, linguist and story writer of Dogri language, recited the story.

The programme was ended with the speech of Sahitya Akademi's Deputy Secretary and convener of this programme Dr. Suresh Babu who threw light on the initiatives taken by the Akademi to promote Dogri language through various methods. He said that during grave crisis of corona, various types of programs are being organized by Sahitya Akademi New Delhi in different languages, so that writers associated with different languages can be showcased under web line series.

Only the right platform is provided and the enthusiasm of his writing remains.

He also expressed his gratitude to all the litterateurs participating in the programme and the convener of Dogri Advisory Board Darshan Darshi and Advisory Board Members with whose cooperation it is possible to organize such programmes.

Sahitya Akademi organises literary programme

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Sahitya Akademi New Delhi under its webline literature series 'Literary Forum' programme organized here today in which famous literary poets, story writers and critics of Dogri language gave their highly captivating presentations.

The programme was coordinated by Dr. N Suresh Babu, Deputy Secretary, Sahitya Akademi.

The programme was started with the literary journey of Deshbandhu Dogra Nutan, a well-known novelist, critic and senior litterateur, who was awarded the Sahitya Akademi Award in Dogri language followed by the experiences of literary journey of Sahitya Akademi Awardee Om Vidyarthi who is a famous poet of Dogri language and famous litterateur.

The programme was further showed the poetry recitation by the famous poet of Dogri language

Dr. N Suresh Babu, Deputy Secretary, Sahitya Akademi and others during a virtual meeting.

Abdul Qadir Kundria with the titles 'Makheer' 'Macchar' 'Irkh' and 'Pieche lageya Baar Corona' in which he captivated the mind of the audience, while Professor Archana Kesar, a well-known critic, linguist and story writer of Dogri language, recited the story.

The programme was ended with the speech of Sahitya Akademi's Deputy Secretary and convener of this programme Dr. Suresh Babu who threw light on the initiatives taken by the Akademi to promote Dogri language through various methods. He said that during grave crisis of corona, various types of programs are being organized by Sahitya Akademi New Delhi in different languages, so that writers associated with different languages can be showcased under web line series.

Only the right platform is provided and the enthusiasm of his writing remains.

He also expressed his gratitude to all the litterateurs participating in the programme and the convener of Dogri Advisory Board Darshan Darshi and Advisory Board Members with whose cooperation it is possible to organize such programmes.

Sahitya Akademi organises programme of Dogri writers, poets

Excelsior Correspondent

JAMMU, June 29: Sahitya Akademi New Delhi, under its weblite literature series 'Literary Forum', organized a programme today, in which famous literary poets, story writers and critics of Dogri language presented their highly captivating works.

The program started with the literary journey of Deshbandhu Dogra Nutan, a well-known novelist, critic and senior litterateur, who has been awarded the Sahitya Akademi Award in Dogri language. This was followed by the experiences of literary journey of Sahitya Akademi Awardee Om Vidyarthi who is a famous poet of Dogri language and famous litterateur.

The programme further showcased the poetry recitation by the famous poet of Dogri language Abdul Qadir Kundria with the titles 'Makheer' 'Macchar' 'Irkh' and 'Picche Lageya Baar Corona' in which he captivated the mind of the audience, while Professor Archana Kesar, a well-known critic, linguist and story writer of Dogri language, recited the story.

Dr Suresh Babu, Sahitya Akademi's Deputy Secretary and convener of this programme, threw light on the initiatives taken by the Akademi to promote Dogri language through various methods.

Sahitya Akademi organises Sahitya Manch programme

GJ REPORT

JAMMU, JUN 29: Sahitya Akademi New Delhi under its webline literature series 'Literary Forum' programme was organized here today in which famous literary poets, story writers and critics of Dogri language gave their highly captivating presentations. The programme was coordinated by Dr. N Suresh Babu, Deputy Secretary, Sahitya Akademi.

The programme started with the literary journey of Deshbandhu Dogra Nutan, a well-known novelist, critic and senior litterateur, who was awarded the Sahitya Akademi Award in Dogri language followed by the experiences of literary journey of Sahitya Akademi Awardee Om Vidyarthi who is a famous poet of Dogri language and famous litterateur. The programme further showed the poetry recitation by the famous poet of Dogri language Abdul Qadir Kandria with the titles 'Makbeer' 'Macchar' 'Trkhi' and 'Picche lageya Baar Corona' in which he captivated the mind of the audience, while Professor Archana Kesar ji, a well-known critic, linguist and story writer of Dogri language, recited the story. The programme ended with the speech of Sahitya Akademi's Deputy Secretary and convener of this programme Dr.

Suresh Babu who threw light on the initiatives taken by the Akademi to promote Dogri language through various methods.

He said during grave crisis of corona, various types of programs are being organized by the Sahitya Akademi New Delhi in different languages, so that writers associated with different languages can be showcased under webline series.

Sahitya Akademi organises Sahitya Manch programme

TP CORRESPONDENT

JAMMU, JUNE 29:

Sahitya Akademi New Delhi under its weblines literature series 'Literary Forum' programme organized here today in which famous literary poets, story writers and critics of Dogri language gave their highly captivating presentations. The program was coordinated by Dr. N Suresh Babu, Deputy Secretary, Sahitya Akademi.

The programme was started with the literary journey of Shri Deshbandhu Dogra Nutan ji, a well-known novelist, critic and senior litterateur, who was awarded the Sahitya Akademi Award in Dogri language followed by the experiences of literary journey of Sahitya Akademi Awardee Shri Om Vidyarthi ji who is a famous poet of Dogri language and famous litterateur.

The programme was further showed the poetry recitation by the famous poet of Dogri language Abdul Qadir Kundria with the titles 'Makheer' 'Macchar' 'Irkh' and 'Picche lageya Baar Corona' in which he captivated the mind of the audience, while Professor Archana Kesar ji, a well-known critic, linguist and story writer of Dogri language, recited the story.

The programme was ended with the speech of Sahitya Akademi's Deputy Secretary and convener of this programme Dr. Suresh Babu who threw light on the initiatives taken by the Akademi to promote dogri language through various methods.

He said that during grave crisis of corona, various types of programs are being organized by Sahitya Akademi New Delhi in different languages, so that writers associated with different languages can be showcased under web line series. Only the right platform is provided and the enthusiasm of his writing remains.

He also expressed his gratitude to all the litterateurs participating in the programme and the convener of Dogri Advisory Board Shri Darshan Darshi and Advisory Board Members with whose cooperation it is possible to organize such programmes.

Sahitya Akademi organises programme to promote Dogri language

TNN BUREAU

JAMMU: Sahitya Akademi New Delhi under its weblite literature series 'Literary Forum' on Tuesday organised a programme in which famous literary poets, story writers and critics of Dogri language gave their highly captivating presentations. The program was coordinated by Dr N Suresh Babu, Deputy Secretary, Sahitya Akademi.

The programme started with the literary journey of Deshbandhu Dogra Nutan ji, a well-known novelist, critic and senior litterateur, who was awarded the Sahitya Akademi Award in Dogri language followed by the experiences of literary journey of Sahitya Akademi Awardee Om Vidyarthi ji who is a famous poet of Dogri language and famous litterateur. The programme was further showed the poetry recitation by the famous poet of Dogri language Abdul Qadir Kundria with the titles "Makheer" 'Macchar' 'Irkh' and Picche lageya Baar Corona" in which he captivated the mind of the audience, while Professor Archana Kesar, a well-known critic, linguist and story writer of Dogri language, recited the story.

Sahitya Akademi's Deputy Secretary and convener of this programme, Dr. Suresh Babu in his address threw light on the initiatives taken by the Akademi to promote Dogri language through various methods. He said that during grave crisis of corona, various types of programs are being organized by Sahitya Akademi New Delhi in different languages, so that writers associated with different languages can be showcased under web line series. Only the right platform is provided and the enthusiasm of his writing remains.

He also expressed his gratitude to all the litterateurs participating in the programme and the convener of Dogri Advisory Board, Darshan Darshi and Advisory Board Members with whose cooperation it was possible to organize such event.

Sahitya Akademi organises Sahitya Manch programme

JAMMU: Sahitya Akademi New Delhi under its weblines literature series 'Literary Forum' programme organized here today in which famous literary poets, story writers and critics of Dogri language gave their highly captivating presentations. The program was coordinated by Dr. N Suresh Babu, Deputy Secretary, Sahitya Akademi. The programme was started with the literary journey of Shri Deshbandhu Dogra Nutan ji, a well-known novelist, critic and senior litterateur, who was awarded the Sahitya Akademi Award in Dogri language followed by the experiences of literary journey of Sahitya Akademi Awardee Shri Om Vidyarthi ji who is a famous poet of Dogri language and famous litterateur. The programme was further showed the poetry recitation by the famous poet of Dogri language Abdul Qadir Kundria with the titles 'Makheer' 'Macchar' 'Irkh' and 'Picche lageya Baar Corona' in which he captivated the mind of the audience, while Professor Archana Kesar ji, a well-known critic, linguist and story writer of Dogri language, recited the story. The programme was ended with the speech of Sahitya Akademi's Deputy Secretary and convener of this programme Dr. Suresh Babu who threw light on the initiatives taken by the Akademi to promote dogri language through various methods. He said that during grave crisis of corona, various types of programs are being organized by Sahitya Akademi New Delhi in different languages, so that writers associated with different languages can be showcased under web line series. Only the right platform is provided and the enthusiasm of his writing remains. He also expressed his gratitude to all the litterateurs participating in the programme and the convener of Dogri Advisory Board Shri Darshan Darshi and Advisory Board Members with whose cooperation it is possible to organize such programmes.

Sahitya Akademi organises literary programme

STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Sahitya Akademi New Delhi under its webline literature series 'Literary Forum' programme organized here today in which famous literary poets, story writers and critics of Dogri language gave their highly captivating presentations.

The programme was coordinated by Dr. N Suresh Babu, Deputy Secretary, Sahitya Akademi.

The programme was started with the literary journey of Deshbandhu Dogra Nutan, a well-known novelist, critic and senior litterateur, who was awarded the Sahitya Akademi Award in Dogri language followed by the experiences of literary journey of Sahitya Akademi Awardee Om Vidyarthi who is a famous poet of Dogri language and famous litterateur.

The programme was further showed the poetry recitation by the famous poet of Dogri language

Dr. N Suresh Babu, Deputy Secretary, Sahitya Akademi and others during a virtual meeting.

Abdul Qadir Kundria with the titles 'Makheer' 'Macchar' 'Irkh' and 'Piche lageya Baar Corona' in which he captivated the mind of the audience, while Professor Archana Kesar, a well-known critic, linguist and story writer of Dogri language, recited the story.

The programme was ended with the speech of Sahitya Akademi's Deputy Secretary and convener of this programme Dr. Suresh Babu who threw light on the initiatives taken by the Akademi to promote Dogri language through various methods. He said that during grave crisis of corona, various types of programs are being organized by Sahitya Akademi New Delhi in different languages, so that writers associated with different languages can be showcased under web line series.

Only the right platform is provided and the enthusiasm of his writing remains.

He also expressed his gratitude to all the litterateurs participating in the programme and the convener of Dogri Advisory Board Darshan Darshi and Advisory Board Members with whose cooperation it is possible to organize such programmes.

Sahitya Akademi organises Sahitya Manch programme

MG BUREAU

JAMMU, JUN 29: Sahitya Akademi New Delhi under its webline literature series 'Literary Forum' programme organized here today in which famous literary poets, story writers and critics of Dogri language gave their highly captivating presentations. The program was coordinated by Dr. N Suresh Babu, Deputy Secretary, Sahitya Akademi. The programme was started with the literary journey of Shri Dashbandhu Dogra Nutan ji, a well-known novelist, critic and senior litterateur, who was awarded the Sahitya Akademi Award in Dogri language followed by the experiences of literary journey of Sahitya Akademi Awardee Shri Om Vidyarthi ji who is a famous poet of Dogri language and famous litterateur. The programme was further showed the poetry recitation by the famous poet of Dogri language Abdul Qadir Kundria with the titles 'Makheer', 'Mochhar', 'Irki' and 'Picche lageya Baar Cuesna' in which he captivated the mind of the audience, while Professor Archana Kesar ji, a well-known critic, linguist and story writer of Dogri language, recited the story.

The programme was ended with the speech of Sahitya Akademi's Deputy Secretary and convener of this programme Dr. Suresh Babu who threw light on the initiatives taken by the Akademi to promote dogri language through various methods. He said that during grave crisis of corona, various types of programs are being organized by Sahitya Akademi New Delhi in different languages, so that writers associated with different languages can be showcased under web line series. Only the right platform is provided and the enthusiasm of his writing remains. He also expressed his gratitude to all the litterateurs participating in the programme and the convener of Dogri Advisory Board Shri Darsam Darsni and Advisory Board Members with whose cooperation it is possible to organize such programmes.

Sahitya Akademi organises Sahitya Manch programme

By Anshu Jaiswal

Sahitya Akademi New Delhi under its web-based literature series 'Literary Forum' programme organised here today in which famous literary poets, story writers and critics of Dogri language gave their highly captivating presentations. The program was coordinated by Dr. N Suresh Babu, Deputy Secretary, Sahitya Akademi.

The programme was started with the literary journey of Deshbandhu Durga Nandan, a well-known novelist, critic and senior litterateur, who was awarded the Sahitya Akademi Award in Dogri language followed by the experiences of literary journey of Sahitya Akademi Awardee Om Vidyarthi who is a famous poet of Dogri language and famous litterateur. The programme was further showed the poetry recitation by the famous poet of Dogri language Abdul Gadir Wazir with the title 'Mokher' 'Mocher' 'Trik' and Purba Jagya Bazar 'Conna' in which he captivated the mind of the audience, while Professor Archana Kaur, a well-known critic, linguist and story writer of Dogri language, recited the story.

The programme was ended with the speech of Sahitya Akademi's Deputy Secretary and conductor of this programme Dr. Suresh Babu who threw light on the initiatives taken by the Akademi to promote Dogri language through various methods. He said that during grave crisis of time, various types of programs are being organised by Sahitya Akademi New Delhi in different languages, so that writers associated with different languages can be showcased under web-based series. The right platform is provided and the enthusiasm of the writing revives.

He also expressed his gratitude to all the litterateurs participating in the programme and the members of Dogri Advisory Board, Darbhanga District and Advisory Board Members who show cooperation in a possible to organise such programmes.

جو ڈوگری زبان کے مشہور شاعر اور مشہور ادب دان ہیں۔ ان کے بعد ڈوگری زبان کے
 مشہور شاعر عبدالقادر گنڈرہ کی شاعری نکھی، مختصر، "ارخ" اور "پہلے لکھیا بار کرونا کے عنوان
 سے پیش کی گئی جس میں انہوں نے سامعین کا من موہ لیا اور سامعین نے اس سے بے حد پسند
 کیا۔ واضح رہے اس پروگرام کا اہتمام ساہتیہ اکیڈمی کے ڈپٹی سکریٹری اور اس پروگرام کے
 کنویژر ڈاکٹر سریش باجو کی تقریر کے ساتھ ہوا جنہوں نے اکیڈمی کی طرف سے مختلف طریقوں
 زبانوں کے فروغ دینے کے اقدامات پر روشنی ڈالی۔ انہوں نے کہا کہ کرونا کے شدید بحران
 کے دوران، ساہتیہ اکیڈمی نئی دہلی کے ذریعہ مختلف زبانوں میں مختلف قسم کے پروگرام منعقد
 کیے جا رہے ہیں، تاکہ ویب لائن سیریز کے تحت مختلف زبانوں سے وابستہ مصنفین کی نمائندگی
 کی جاسکے۔ انہوں نے پروگرام میں شریک تمام ادب دانوں اور ڈوگری ایڈوائزر ری بورڈ کے
 کنویژر شری ورشن ورشی اور مشاورتی بورڈ ممبران کا بھی شکریہ ادا کیا جن کے تعاون سے اس
 طرح کے پروگراموں کا اہتمام ممکن ہے۔

ساہتیہ اکیڈمی کے زیر اہتمام ساہتیہ منچ پروگرام کا انعقاد

کورونا کے بحران کے دوران مختلف زبانوں میں مختلف قسم کے پروگرام منعقد کیے جا رہے ہیں: ڈاکٹر سریش بابو

لازوال ڈیسک

جموں // ساہتیہ اکیڈمی دہلی نے اپنے ویب سائٹ لٹرچر سیریز لٹرچر فورم کے تحت آج یہاں ساہتیہ منچ پروگرام کا انعقاد کیا۔ جس میں مشہور ادبی شعراء، کہناتی نگار، مصنفین اور ڈوگری زبان کے نقادوں نے اپنی دلکش پرزنتیشن پیش کیں۔ جبکہ پروگرام کی کوآرڈینیشن ڈاکٹر این سریش بابو، ڈپٹی سکریٹری،

جنہیں ڈوگری زبان میں ساہتیہ اکیڈمی ایوارڈ سے بھی نوازا جا چکا ہے۔ اس کے بعد ساہتیہ اکیڈمی ایوارڈی اوم و دیارتھی کے ادبی سفر کا شروعات ہوئی... 204

ساہتیہ اکیڈمی نے کی۔ وہیں پروگرام کا آغاز دلش بھندو ڈوگریہ نوتن جی کے ادبی سفر کے ساتھ کیا گیا۔ جبکہ نوتن جی ایک مشہور ناول نگار، نقاد اور سینئر ادیب ہیں